

LIVING FROM THE INSIDE OUT

GOD'S NOT DONE WITH ME YET

January 24 & 25, 2026

Philippians 1:1-11 (NLT)

This letter is from Paul and Timothy, slaves of Christ Jesus.

I am writing to all of God's holy people in Philippi who belong to Christ Jesus, including the church leaders and deacons.

May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Every time I think of you, I give thanks to my God. Whenever I pray, I make my requests for all of you with joy, for you have been my partners in spreading the Good News about Christ from the time you first heard it until now. And I am certain that God, who began the good work within you, will continue his work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns.

So it is right that I should feel as I do about all of you, for you have a special place in my heart. You share with me the special favor of God, both in my imprisonment and in defending and confirming the truth of the Good News. God knows how much I love you and long for you with the tender compassion of Christ Jesus.

I pray that your love will overflow more and more, and that you will keep on growing in knowledge and understanding. For I want you to understand what really matters, so that you may live pure and blameless lives until the day of Christ's return. May you always be filled with the fruit of your salvation—the righteous character produced in your life by Jesus Christ—for this will bring much glory and praise to God.

5 WAYS I CAN PROVE GOD IS WORKING ON ME:

1 P _____ that I belong to God because I believe,
not because I behave.

Philippians 1:1-2 (NLT)

This letter is from Paul and Timothy, slaves of Christ Jesus. I am writing to all of God's holy people in Philippi who belong to Christ Jesus, including the church leaders and deacons.

2 Critical Realities:

- I don't try to be good to belong to God. Because I already belong to God, I can be _____.
- Grace and peace are not rewards; they are _____ given to those who believe Jesus died for them.

Ephesians 2:8-10 (MSG)

Saving is all his idea, and all his work. All we do is trust him enough to let him do it. It's God's gift from start to finish! We don't play the major role. If we did, we'd probably go around bragging that we'd done the whole thing! No, we neither make nor save ourselves. God does both the making and saving. He creates each of us by Christ Jesus to join him in the work he does, the good work he has gotten ready for us to do, work we had better be doing.

2 Corinthians 5:21 (TPT)

For God made the only one who did not know sin to become sin for us, so that we might become the righteousness of God through our union with him.

Our family name is not earned by performance; it is _____ by relationship.

2

R_____ God has already done more in me than I often acknowledge.

Philippians 1:3-5 (NLT)

Every time I think of you, I give thanks to my God. Whenever I pray, I make my requests for all of you with joy, for you have been my partners in spreading the Good News about Christ from the time you first heard it until now.

2 Critical Realities:

- _____ comes or increases when I intentionally recognize how far God has already brought me.
- _____ reveals the depth of my spiritual growth.

Psalm 143:5-6 (MSG)

I sat there in despair, my spirit draining away, my heart heavy, like lead. I remembered the old days, went over all you've done, pondered the ways you've worked, stretched out my hands to you, as thirsty for you as a desert thirsty for rain.

3 O_____ with the confidence that God always finishes what He starts.

Philippians 1:6 (NLT)

And I am certain that God, who began the good work within you, will continue his work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns.

2 Critical Realities:

- I can rest because my growth does not depend on my _____.
- I know when I'm struggling God is still _____, not absent.

Psalm 37:23-24 (GNT)

The LORD guides us in the way we should go and protects those who please him. If they fall, they will not stay down, because the LORD will help them up.

1 Thessalonians 5:23-24 (GNT)

May the God who gives us peace make you holy in every way and keep your whole being—spirit, soul, and body—free from every fault at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. He who calls you will do it, because he is faithful.

4 V_____ God's unwavering love during my ongoing transformation.

Philippians 1:7-8 (NLT)

So it is right that I should feel as I do about all of you, for you have a special place in my heart. You share with me the special favor of God, both in my imprisonment and in defending and confirming the truth of the Good News. God knows how much I love you and long for you with the tender compassion of Christ Jesus.

_____ is not postponed until maturity is complete.

2 Critical Realities:

- I never have to wait until I'm “_____” to be loved by God.
- I can be sure that in the middle of my mess, God's _____ always meets me there.

Romans 5:8 (NIV)

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Psalm 103:13 (TPT)

The same way a loving father feels toward his children—that's but a sample of your tender feelings toward us, your beloved children, who live in awe of you.

5

E_____ how God is shaping in me what matters most to Him.

Philippians 1:9-11 (NLT)

I pray that your love will overflow more and more, and that you will keep on growing in knowledge and understanding. For I want you to understand what really matters, so that you may live pure and blameless lives until the day of Christ's return. May you always be filled with the fruit of your salvation—the righteous character produced in your life by Jesus Christ—for this will bring much glory and praise to God.

Paul prays for love, wisdom, discernment, and character – this is transformation.

2 Critical Realities:

- As God shapes what I love, my choices begin to _____ His choices.
- As God works in me, it will be _____ in my life over time.

Galatians 5:22-23 (NLT)

But the Holy Spirit produces this kind of fruit in our lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against these things!

Hebrews 12:7-11 (NIV)

Endure hardship as discipline; God is treating you as his children. For what children are not disciplined by their father? If you are not disciplined—and everyone undergoes discipline—then you are not legitimate, not true sons and daughters at all. Moreover, we have all had human fathers who disciplined us and we respected them for it. How much more should we submit to the Father of spirits and live! They disciplined us for a little while as they thought best; but God disciplines us for our good, in order that we may share in his holiness. No discipline seems pleasant at the time, but painful. Later on, however, it produces a harvest of righteousness and peace for those who have been trained by it.

Critical Questions I Must Ask:

- Where can I thank God today for growth instead of focusing on what is unfinished?
- How would my attitude change if I trusted God's faithfulness more fully?

LIVING FROM THE INSIDE OUT

GOD'S NOT DONE WITH ME YET

January 24 & 25, 2026

Philippians 1:1-11 (NLT)

This letter is from Paul and Timothy, slaves of Christ Jesus.

I am writing to all of God's holy people in Philippi who belong to Christ Jesus, including the church leaders and deacons.

May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Every time I think of you, I give thanks to my God. Whenever I pray, I make my requests for all of you with joy, for you have been my partners in spreading the Good News about Christ from the time you first heard it until now. And I am certain that God, who began the good work within you, will continue his work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns.

So it is right that I should feel as I do about all of you, for you have a special place in my heart. You share with me the special favor of God, both in my imprisonment and in defending and confirming the truth of the Good News. God knows how much I love you and long for you with the tender compassion of Christ Jesus.

I pray that your love will overflow more and more, and that you will keep on growing in knowledge and understanding. For I want you to understand what really matters, so that you may live pure and blameless lives until the day of Christ's return. May you always be filled with the fruit of your salvation—the righteous character produced in your life by Jesus Christ—for this will bring much glory and praise to God.

5 WAYS I CAN PROVE GOD IS WORKING ON ME:

1

Proclaim that I belong to God because I believe, not because I behave.

Philippians 1:1-2 (NLT)

This letter is from Paul and Timothy, slaves of Christ Jesus. I am writing to all of God's holy people in Philippi who belong to Christ Jesus, including the church leaders and deacons.

2 Critical Realities:

- I don't try to be good to belong to God. Because I already belong to God, I can be good.
- Grace and peace are not rewards; they are gifts given to those who believe Jesus died for them.

Ephesians 2:8-10 (MSG)

Saving is all his idea, and all his work. All we do is trust him enough to let him do it. It's God's gift from start to finish! We don't play the major role. If we did, we'd probably go around bragging that we'd done the whole thing! No, we neither make nor save ourselves. God does both the making and saving. He creates each of us by Christ Jesus to join him in the work he does, the good work he has gotten ready for us to do, work we had better be doing.

2 Corinthians 5:21 (TPT)

For God made the only one who did not know sin to become sin for us, so that we might become the righteousness of God through our union with him.

Our family name is not earned by performance; it is received by relationship.

2

Recognize God has already done more in me than I often acknowledge.

Philippians 1:3-5 (NLT)

Every time I think of you, I give thanks to my God. Whenever I pray, I make my requests for all of you with joy, for you have been my partners in spreading the Good News about Christ from the time you first heard it until now.

2 Critical Realities:

- Joy comes or increases when I intentionally recognize how far God has already brought me.
- Gratitude reveals the depth of my spiritual growth.

Psalm 143:5-6 (MSG)

I sat there in despair, my spirit draining away, my heart heavy, like lead. I remembered the old days, went over all you've done, pondered the ways you've worked, stretched out my hands to you, as thirsty for you as a desert thirsty for rain.

3

Operate with the confidence that God always finishes what He starts.

Philippians 1:6 (NLT)

And I am certain that God, who began the good work within you, will continue his work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns.

2 Critical Realities:

- I can rest because my growth does not depend on my perfection.
- I know when I'm struggling God is still active, not absent.

Psalm 37:23-24 (GNT)

The LORD guides us in the way we should go and protects those who please him. If they fall, they will not stay down, because the LORD will help them up.

1 Thessalonians 5:23-24 (GNT)

May the God who gives us peace make you holy in every way and keep your whole being—spirit, soul, and body—free from every fault at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. He who calls you will do it, because he is faithful.

4

Value God's unwavering love during my ongoing transformation.

Philippians 1:7-8 (NLT)

So it is right that I should feel as I do about all of you, for you have a special place in my heart. You share with me the special favor of God, both in my imprisonment and in defending and confirming the truth of the Good News. God knows how much I love you and long for you with the tender compassion of Christ Jesus.

Love is not postponed until maturity is complete.

2 Critical Realities:

- I never have to wait until I'm “better” to be loved by God.
- I can be sure that in the middle of my mess, God's compassion always meets me there.

Romans 5:8 (NIV)

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Psalm 103:13 (TPT)

The same way a loving father feels toward his children—that's but a sample of your tender feelings toward us, your beloved children, who live in awe of you.

Philippians 1:9-11 (NLT)

I pray that your love will overflow more and more, and that you will keep on growing in knowledge and understanding. For I want you to understand what really matters, so that you may live pure and blameless lives until the day of Christ's return. May you always be filled with the fruit of your salvation—the righteous character produced in your life by Jesus Christ—for this will bring much glory and praise to God.

Paul prays for love, wisdom, discernment, and character – this is inside-out transformation.

2 Critical Realities:

- As God shapes what I love, my choices begin to reflect His choices.
- As God works in me, it will be demonstrated in my life over time.

Galatians 5:22-23 (NLT)

But the Holy Spirit produces this kind of fruit in our lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against these things!

Hebrews 12:7-11 (NIV)

Endure hardship as discipline; God is treating you as his children. For what children are not disciplined by their father? If you are not disciplined—and everyone undergoes discipline—then you are not legitimate, not true sons and daughters at all. Moreover, we have all had human fathers who disciplined us and we respected them for it. How much more should we submit to the Father of spirits and live! They disciplined us for a little while as they thought best; but God disciplines us for our good, in order that we may share in his holiness. No discipline seems pleasant at the time, but painful. Later on, however, it produces a harvest of righteousness and peace for those who have been trained by it.

Critical Questions I Must Ask:

- Where can I thank God today for growth instead of focusing on what is unfinished?
- How would my attitude change if I trusted God's faithfulness more fully?