THE HURRY PROBLEM

Remember:

Margin isn't about having less to do – it's about making room for God so you can live with greater passion, peace, generosity, and

_____.

Margin is Possible Only When I...

1 M_____ God's presence my first priority.

Psalm 27:4 (GNT)

I have asked the LORD for one thing; one thing only do I want: to live in the LORD's house all my life, to marvel there at his goodness, and to ask for his guidance.

Psalm 63:1-8 (MSG)

God—you're my God! I can't get enough of you! I've worked up such hunger and thirst for God, traveling across dry and weary deserts.

So here I am in the place of worship, eyes open, drinking in your strength and glory. In your generous love I am really living at last! My lips brim praises like fountains. I bless you every time I take a breath; My arms wave like banners of praise to you.

I eat my fill of prime rib and gravy; I smack my lips. It's time to shout praises! If I'm sleepless at midnight, I spend the hours in grateful reflection. Because you've always stood up for me, I'm free to run and play. I hold on to you for dear life, and you hold me steady as a post.

Remember:

David was a giant killer, king, warrior, husband, father, and worship leader, yet the only thing he wanted was God's

_____.

How can I do this?

- _____ every day with God before getting on my phone.
- _____ uninterrupted time with God instead of "hoping it happens."
- _____ before I work.

2 A _____ my soul to be renewed.

Psalm 23:2-3 (NCV)

He lets me rest in green pastures. He leads me to calm water. He gives me new strength. He leads me on paths that are right for the good of his name.

Psalm 103:1-5 (NCV)

All that I am, praise the LORD; everything in me, praise his holy name. My whole being, praise the LORD and do not forget all his kindnesses. He forgives all my sins and heals all my diseases. He saves my life from the grave and loads me with love and mercy. He satisfies me with good things and makes me young again, like the eagle.

How to experience renewal:

- _____ weekly rhythms of rest.
- _____ things that refresh my soul.
- _____ to wear exhaustion and busyness as a badge of honor.

3 R _____ the rush for more.

Luke 12:15-21 (NLT)

Then he said, "Beware! Guard against every kind of greed. Life is not measured by how much you own."

Then he told them a story: "A rich man had a fertile farm that produced fine crops. He said to himself, 'What should I do? I don't have room for all my crops.' Then he said, 'I know! I'll tear down my barns and build bigger ones. Then I'll have room enough to store all my wheat and other goods. And I'll sit back and say to myself, "My friend, you have enough stored away for years to come. Now take it easy! Eat, drink, and be merry!"'

"But God said to him, 'You fool! You will die this very night. Then who will get everything you worked for?'

"Yes, a person is a fool to store up earthly wealth but not have a rich relationship with God."

Remember:

Margin disappears whenever " _____ " becomes our goal.

How to resist the rush:

- _____ being content.
- _____ my pace.
- _____ my value isn't measured by what I own.

4 G _____ generously, because all I have belongs to God.

1 Chronicles 29:2-3, 15-16 (NLT)

Using every resource at my command, I have gathered as much as I could for building the Temple of my God. Now there is enough gold, silver, bronze, iron, and wood, as well as great quantities of onyx, other precious stones, costly jewels, and all kinds of fine stone and marble.

“And now, because of my devotion to the Temple of my God, I am giving all of my own private treasures of gold and silver to help in the construction. This is in addition to the building materials I have already collected for his holy Temple.” ...

We are here for only a moment, visitors and strangers in the land as our ancestors were before us. Our days on earth are like a passing shadow, gone so soon without a trace.

“O LORD our God, even this material we have gathered to build a Temple to honor your holy name comes from you! It all belongs to you!”

What Do I Have to Give?

- My _____
– Talents, abilities, skills, and strengths.
- My _____
– Words of love, affirmation, and hope.
- My _____
– Focus, listening heart, and time.
- My _____
– Work lessons, life challenges, and years of learning.
- My _____
– They are actually all God’s anyway.

Remember:

It’s all about an _____ life.

5 I _____ in what will outlive me.

1 Chronicles 22:14-19 (NLT)

“I have worked hard to provide materials for building the Temple of the LORD—nearly 4,000 tons of gold, 40,000 tons of silver, and so much iron and bronze that it cannot be weighed. I have also gathered timber and stone for the walls, though you may need to add more. You have a large number of skilled stonemasons and carpenters and craftsmen of every kind. You have expert goldsmiths and silversmiths and workers of bronze and iron. Now begin the work, and may the LORD be with you!”

1 Chronicles 22:14-19 (continued)

Then David ordered all the leaders of Israel to assist Solomon in this project. "The LORD your God is with you," he declared. "He has given you peace with the surrounding nations. He has handed them over to me, and they are now subject to the Lord and his people. Now seek the LORD your God with all your heart and soul. Build the sanctuary of the LORD God so that you can bring the Ark of the LORD's Covenant and the holy vessels of God into the Temple built to honor the LORD's name."

1 Chronicles 29:26-28 (NLT)

So David son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. He reigned over Israel for forty years, seven of them in Hebron and thirty-three in Jerusalem. He died at a ripe old age, having enjoyed long life, wealth, and honor. Then his son Solomon ruled in his place.

What will outlive me?

- Invest in my _____.
- Invest in my _____.
- Invest in _____ believers.
- Invest in the _____.

It's all about investing in _____.

6

N _____ people more than my schedule.

2 Samuel 9:1-8 (NLT)

One day David asked, "Is anyone in Saul's family still alive—anyone to whom I can show kindness for Jonathan's sake?" He summoned a man named Ziba, who had been one of Saul's servants. "Are you Ziba?" the king asked.

"Yes sir, I am," Ziba replied. The king then asked him, "Is anyone still alive from Saul's family? If so, I want to show God's kindness to them."

Ziba replied, "Yes, one of Jonathan's sons is still alive. He is crippled in both feet." "Where is he?" the king asked. "In Lo-debar," Ziba told him, "at the home of Makir son of Ammiel."

So David sent for him and brought him from Makir's home. His name was Mephibosheth ; he was Jonathan's son and Saul's grandson. When he came to David, he bowed low to the ground in deep respect. David said, "Greetings, Mephibosheth." Mephibosheth replied, "I am your servant."

"Don't be afraid!" David said. "I intend to show kindness to you because of my promise to your father, Jonathan. I will give you all the property that once belonged to your grandfather Saul, and you will eat here with me at the king's table!"

Mephibosheth bowed respectfully and exclaimed, "Who is your servant, that you should show such kindness to a dead dog like me?"

How do I notice others?

- _____ them with compassion.
- _____ them with sincerity.
- _____ them with humility. (We Over Me)
- _____ room for them intentionally.
