

Enneagram #7 – The Enthusiast wants to experience every second of life to the fullest – has a positive outlook, a practical approach to life, loves adventure, and is flexible while being future-minded.

The Impulsive Enthusiast Luke 19 (TPT)

The Positive Reflection of the Enthusiast

Luke 19:1-10 (TPT)

In the city of Jericho there lived a very wealthy man named Zacchaeus, who was the supervisor over all the tax collectors. As Jesus made his way through the city, Zacchaeus was eager to see Jesus. He kept trying to get a look at him, but the crowd around Jesus was massive. Zacchaeus was a very short man and couldn't see over the heads of the people. So he ran on ahead of everyone and climbed up a blossoming fig tree so he could get a glimpse of Jesus as he passed by. When Jesus got to that place, he looked up into the tree and said, "Zacchaeus, hurry on down, for I am appointed to stay at your house today!" So he scurried down the tree and came face-to-face with Jesus. As Jesus left to go with Zacchaeus, many in the crowd complained, "Look at this! Of all the people to have dinner with, he's going to eat in the house of a crook." Zacchaeus joyously welcomed Jesus and was amazed over his gracious visit to his home. Zacchaeus stood in front of the Lord and said, "Half of all that I own I will give to the poor. And Lord, if I have cheated anyone, I promise to pay back four times as much as I stole." Jesus said to him, "This shows that today life has come to you and your household, for you are a true son of Abraham. The Son of Man has come to seek out and to give life to those who are lost."

1. He was very successful in a difficult career.
2. He was always up for an adventure, even a risky one.
3. He was a great host, ready for a party at a moment's notice.
4. He was willing to change for the better, regardless of the cost.

The problem... "Eager to see" = fear of missing out.

The Negative Reflections of the Enthusiast

Luke 19:7-8 (TPT)

As Jesus left to go with Zacchaeus, many in the crowd complained, "Look at this! Of all the people to have dinner with, he's going to eat in the house of a crook." Zacchaeus joyously welcomed Jesus and was amazed over his gracious visit to his home. Zacchaeus stood in front of the Lord and said, "Half of all that I own I will give to the poor. And Lord, if I have cheated anyone, I promise to pay back four times as much as I stole."

1. He fooled people for his own personal interest.
2. He made promises he most likely didn't keep.
3. He was loved by his bosses, but had little time for common people.
4. He moved on to the next adventure and we never hear another thing about him.

The Pro – He was never boring = adventurous

The Best Reflection of the Enthusiast

Jesus was always positive, but realistic. He was on the move, but never too busy. He was an adventurer, but for a purpose, and he was the life of the party because he is the life of the world.

Healthy Enthusiasts

- Learn the value of delayed gratification.
- Look at what you already have with great appreciation.
- Love being positive, but embrace the opportunity to experience some pain.
- Live free from addictions and obsessions.

Sevens need me to love and appreciate their:

- FOMO – "fear of missing out" because it makes them enthusiastic.
- Spontaneity and sense of adventure.
- Attempts at being emotionally transparent.

Pastor Rick's Reading List

The Road Back to You	Ian Morgan Cron and Suzanne Stabile
The Path Between Us	Suzanne Stabile

Enneagram #7 – The Enthusiast wants to experience every second of life to the fullest – has a positive outlook, a practical approach to life, loves adventure, and is flexible while being future-minded.

The Impulsive Enthusiast Luke 19 (TPT)

The Positive Reflection of the Enthusiast

Luke 19:1-10 (TPT)

In the city of Jericho there lived a very wealthy man named Zacchaeus, who was the supervisor over all the tax collectors. As Jesus made his way through the city, Zacchaeus was eager to see Jesus. He kept trying to get a look at him, but the crowd around Jesus was massive. Zacchaeus was a very short man and couldn't see over the heads of the people. So he ran on ahead of everyone and climbed up a blossoming fig tree so he could get a glimpse of Jesus as he passed by. When Jesus got to that place, he looked up into the tree and said, "Zacchaeus, hurry on down, for I am appointed to stay at your house today!" So he scurried down the tree and came face-to-face with Jesus. As Jesus left to go with Zacchaeus, many in the crowd complained, "Look at this! Of all the people to have dinner with, he's going to eat in the house of a crook." Zacchaeus joyously welcomed Jesus and was amazed over his gracious visit to his home. Zacchaeus stood in front of the Lord and said, "Half of all that I own I will give to the poor. And Lord, if I have cheated anyone, I promise to pay back four times as much as I stole." Jesus said to him, "This shows that today life has come to you and your household, for you are a true son of Abraham. The Son of Man has come to seek out and to give life to those who are lost."

1. He was very _____ in a difficult career.
2. He was always up for an _____, even a risky one.
3. He was a great host, ready for a _____ at a moment's notice.
4. He was willing to _____ for the better, regardless of the cost.

The problem... "Eager to see" = fear of _____.

The Negative Reflections of the Enthusiast

Luke 19:7-8 (TPT)

As Jesus left to go with Zacchaeus, many in the crowd complained, "Look at this! Of all the people to have dinner with, he's going to eat in the house of a crook." Zacchaeus joyously welcomed Jesus and was amazed over his gracious visit to his home. Zacchaeus stood in front of the Lord and said, "Half of all that I own I will give to the poor. And Lord, if I have cheated anyone, I promise to pay back four times as much as I stole."

1. He _____ people for his own _____.
2. He made _____ he most likely didn't keep.
3. He was loved by his _____, but had little time for common people.
4. He _____ on to the next adventure and we never hear another thing about him.

The Pro – He was never boring = adventurous

The Best Reflection of the Enthusiast

Jesus was always positive, but realistic. He was on the move, but never too busy. He was an adventurer, but for a purpose, and he was the life of the party because he is the life of the world.

Healthy Enthusiasts

- _____ the value of delayed _____.
- _____ at what you already have with great appreciation.
- _____ being positive, but embrace the opportunity to experience some _____.
- _____ free from addictions and obsessions.

Sevens need me to love and appreciate their:

- _____ – "fear of missing out" because it makes them enthusiastic.
- Spontaneity and sense of _____.
- _____ at being emotionally transparent.

Pastor Rick's Reading List

The Road Back to You Ian Morgan Cron and Suzanne Stabile
 The Path Between Us Suzanne Stabile